JUNE 2019

A monthly publication of The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, Bethesda, Maryland

WHAT'S AT REDEEMER TODAY

Church of the Redeemer's Annual Strawberry Festival June 8 from 11am–3pm

Sunday, June 2 to Friday, June 7

The racks arrive and the tables are set up to receive collectables, books, and clothing. Please remember that collectibles should be collectible and not junk. Books should be in good shape for resale. Clothing items must be clean and on hangers. We need lots of volunteers throughout the week to make sure these areas are organized and ready to go on Saturday morning. Bake Sale items made and packaged for Saturday morning.

Friday, June 7

Strawberry Pickers: people who go out Friday morning to Butler Farms and pick gallons of little red berries for our consumption. The more people we get, the faster it goes. Plan on two or three hours of work.

Strawberry Hullers: people who sit, chat, and cut the green stuff off the strawberries and then cut them into little pieces.

The COSTCO Team: These folks go to Costco to purchase the burgers, hotdogs, buns, and other supplies for the food and drink aspects of the festival. We need strong people with vans or larger vehicles to bring the bounty back to the church.

Saturday, June 8 – THE DAY!

Even if you've done one of these job for decades, please let Michael know you're willing to do it again! Email him at jenningsmershon@gmail.com with any questions. We can use your help with: Ticket Sales, Balloons, Set-up in the parish hall: tables and chairs, Kitchen prep and staff, Grill prep and staff, Boutique, Book, and Collectible staffs, Face painting staff, Moonbounce staff, Arts and Crafts staff, Bake Sale staff, Clean-up staff.

Not going to be in town? Won't you consider making a donation toward the costs of the food or other items? Your financial assistance is much appreciated.

FROM THE SENIOR WARDEN

Dear Friends,

June marks the end of school, and the beginning of summer. The days are long, and so far, most nights are cool. The fireflies arrive, the neighborhood pools open, and we celebrate our community with Redeemer's Strawberry Festival. Please sign up to participate in one way or another: either on Friday June 7 to pick strawberries at the orchard, or to hull at the Clara Barton Center; or on June 8, for the setup, cleanup, and the inbetween. Welcome our neighbors, have lunch, and top it off with a strawberry something (this year we are adding strawberry cheesecake to the strawberry variations).

The vestry met last week, and we had many conversations about the pews and your reactions to the rearrangement of them. I hope by now that you have taken the short survey that was sent by email. We want to hear from you. We will convene a meeting on Sunday June 16th at 9:15 (between services) to present the findings from that survey and to discuss the ways forward.

Although the vestry acted quickly to approve the new layout, we did not act precipitously; we had floor plans, schedules, and a list of problems this new layout would solve: for example, the organist could not hear the organ because of where the console was placed; the choir could not hear themselves because they were so close to the organ pipes; and the choir, in the transept, did not feel like part of the community.

Moving the pews was an experiment. It fixed some problems and created others. It got us talking and thinking about our worship space and where we fit in it. We see the nave and the transepts now with fresh eyes. We'll figure out together the next iteration.

Hoping for peace,
Susan Graham Fitzgerald

Discernment Group at Redeemer: Sunday, June 2, 2019 at 12:15 p.m.

Just a reminder that a group is gathering to practice deep listening and to share the experience of this practice with one another or just in silence together. A small number of interested parishioners met this fall and agreed to meet on the first Sunday of each month at 12:15pm in the adult classroom. There is silent reflection and voluntary sharing of the experience of a daily review. No experience of this practice is necessary, and any curiosity about spiritual discernment of one's path in life may be brought to this simple gathering. We meet for about 45 minutes. We will start reading through the booklet by Lois Lindbloom called "Is That You, God? Cultivating Discernment as a Way of Life" (2007). Marilyn has several copies available; they are free. So have a coffee after the 10:30 am service and then meet us for a quiet time.

Celebrate Eastertide by exploring this contemplative practice. Join us whenever you can; you need not have met with us previously.

FROM THE HEARTH

There are exciting events happening at Redeemer. Between Memorial Day weekend and Pentecost we are welcoming new persons into the Baptismal Community. In addition, we have several new families and individuals who have chosen to journey with us. I would like to recognize those families on Pentecost. If you've joined Redeemer in the last year or so, please come to the 10:30 am service so that we can welcome you.

Speaking of welcome, newcomers and regular attenders are invited to a Rector's Welcome lunch on Saturday, June 15, at 12:30pm. This is chance to meet each other and get to know each other better. If you have a friend who is church shopping, feel free to invite them to the lunch before you invite them to church. RSVP to me by June 11 please.

We congratulate Patricia Snowden, Virginia Pearson, and Cheryl Stafford on their completion of the 4-year Education for Ministry course. Cheryl is taking over for me and will offer EfM on Wednesday mornings at St. James' Parish in Potomac. Jo Barclay-Beard will mentor her class again on Tuesday evenings, if there are at least six people interested in taking it. (See more about EfM in this newsletter.)

I hope that you will look for and fill out the short survey the vestry is sending out in order to gather information for our listening session on the pew arrangement. We all agree that there are improvements to be made. I'm also glad that we've been willing to experiment and that the vestry has chosen to take a risk for the betterment of the parish. Your voice is important and we want to listen.

All of the above are indications of a healthy parish. That is something to celebrate every day.

Faithfully,

Amma Cricket

YOUTH NEWS

Youth Field Trip to the Holocaust Museum

Rising 5th graders to high school seniors are invited to take part in this June 22nd field trip to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum. As of this writing there are 11/20 tickets available. We need to assemble at the museum no later than 12:30pm on that date. Note: the museum features photographs and artifacts that can be (should be) disturbing. Please talk with your young people about the Holocaust before we go. Please contact Amma Cricket (rector@redeemerbethesda.org) to reserve your tickets. We will arrange for carpooling closer to the date of the event.

P.R.A.Y. Being Revived!

Redeemer & St. Patrick's (and most likely St. Dunstan's*) plan to reconvene the Potomac River Anglican Youth in September. We have interviewed, and are in the process of engaging a director for this program. The person will provide leadership for the monthly activity for all of the eligible youth in the parishes. The P.R.A.Y. coordinator will also work with the three churches in their ongoing youth activities in order to get to know our young people. There will be more about the coordinator in next month's newsletter.

*St. Dunstan's has called a new rector, but that person will not be onboard until September 1st.

Capital Area Interfaith Friends - CAIF - CAIF had a wonderful evening helping prepare a KindWorks Welcome Dinner for 2 arriving refugee families from Afghanistan. We made Chicken Lawang and Afghan salad (recipes from a wonderful blog in comments below) and Afghan fudge. This was CAIF's contribution to the Interfaith Council of Metropolitan Washington Day of Unity. A good time was had by all including the teens who had never chopped so many onions before and some hilarity ensued with the related crying. The food was packed with love in lovely donated serving dishes which the families will keep.

PARISH NEWS

Rector's Welcome Lunch

June 15, 2019 12:30pm

Here's a chance to meet and get to know the people you worship with each week! Come to the Rector's Welcome Lunch. This used to be the "Newcomers" Lunch, but we don't want to limit our fellowship. In fact, feel free to invite a friend. Please let Amma Cricket know if you are attending by June 11th. Let her know about any dietary restrictions or allergies, too.

EfM Registration Open Now!

Looking for a small group setting in which you learn about scripture, church history, and theology? Want to explore ideas and discover how faith and life fit together? Don't want to spend $600+/credit hour to do it? Register for Tuesday evening Education for Ministry with Jo Barclay-Beard.

The course fee is $375, which is reduced from the full-price because the diocese is an EfM sponsor. Scholarships are available. This covers one year of the seminar AND the books. There are no exams and no papers. Christian formation doesn't get any better than this.

For further information, check out the EfM website: <http://efm.sewanee.edu/about-efm/about-efm>

Come to the Purl-y Gates!!

Ladies and Gentlemen who wish to knit, crochet, or otherwise occupy some time with a craft are invited to do so at 9 am each Sunday morning in the Parish Hall. The Purl-y Gates open on June 22nd and continue through the summer months. Work on prayer shawls and visit with each other. This is a great time to start working on cold weather projects like hats and scarves for Bethesda Cares and Street Church. Those projects are great for beginning stitchers - so come and learn.

(Don't forget that there are projects in the narthex if you want to work on something during services. The preachers don't mind - research says that you retain more information if you keep your hands busy while you listen!)

Redeemer Book Club

The book that we are reading is The Devil in the White City by Erik Larson. The book narrates the steps taken to build the legendary World Fair in Chicago circa 1893 thereby securing America's place in the world. At the same time, it details the actions of the cunning serial killer who used the fair to lure his victims to their death. The book will be discussed at 3:00 pm on Sunday June 23, at the home of Huda & Jochen Kraske.

After that, we will be reading March by Geraldine Brooks.

MUSIC AT REDEEMER

Thank you Redeemer Choirs, FOMAR, Geoffrey Silver, and Chuyoung Suter for a wonderful year of music.

We can hardly wait for what next year will bring!

WORSHIP

Liturgy for Summertime

This summer, we go back to the '79 Prayer Book for our Sunday services. We'll use Prayer A for the Eucharistic Prayer. Geoffrey found that our planning software provides prayers of the people that are written based on the readings for that day. These prayers will be incorporated for most, if not all, of the summer.

The choir won't be with us, which means the center seats are up for grabs! Please sit in those pews this summer. Amma Cricket plans to do some experimental preaching during these next few months. People sitting in these pews makes it easier for her to do what she's hoping to do.

If you have suggestions regarding liturgy and music for the summertime, please connect with Amma Cricket and/or Geoffrey. And, don't forget to go to church if you're away from Bethesda/Glen Echo from June through August.

Worship Assistants are not assigned in the summer. There will be a sign-up board in the Narthex where you can add your name to an open position, and serve the next week.

Give a new ministry a try!
On-the-job training provided.

What does it mean to be Registered Member of The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer?

- Regularly attend worship;
- Offer yourself in service to the parish community and take part in opportunities for mission and outreach to those beyond the church walls;
- Grow in faith through prayer and take part in opportunities for study and formation;
- Make an annual stewardship pledge in support of the life and ministry of the parish.

Transfer of Membership: If you are already a registered member of another Episcopal parish, you may transfer your membership to Redeemer by completing a transfer request form, which you will then send to your former parish. That parish will send an official letter of transfer to Redeemer. The Office will contact you when your transfer is complete and your name has been entered into the Parish Register.

Reception & Confirmation: If you are not a registered member of another Episcopal parish or are coming to Redeemer from another denomination, you become an official member of the church through the completion of a series of classes and participation in a service of Confirmation or Reception. These services take place twice a year at the National Cathedral. Please speak with Amma Cricket if you would like to be a part of the next series of classes.

Might you be called to be a Healing Minister?

Healing ministers pray for congregants who present themselves the third Sunday of the month in the St. Luke Chapel. Thad Arrington will be scheduling the next quarter and would be pleased to add more healing ministers to the roster.

Summer Volunteers Needed For Water Ministry:
A great opportunity to serve our community for those 18 years and older.

Redeemer is partnering with St Columba's to offer lunch, laundry and showers to adults in need year round, which we call the Water Ministry. Our summer Water Ministry starts June 3 and runs through August 2. We are open Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays and need five volunteers each day to assist our guests with showers and laundry, prepare simple lunches, set up for our guests and clean up afterwards. Our hours are from 10:00am and finish around 1:30pm, once our guests have gone. We welcome volunteers who can come weekly, monthly or every now and then. We will provide an orientation.

This is a wonderful chance to make a difference and help those truly in need. If interested in volunteering, please contact our parishioner Karen Stewart Karenstewart0405@gmail.com.

We look forward to meeting and working with you.

Redeemer Men's Third Friday Luncheon Group

Beginning a while ago, a group of mostly retired men began gathering for a fellowship lunch on the third Friday of the month. The group discusses whatever is on their collective minds and catches up on how they are all doing. Being older and retired, sometimes the discussion centers on health, other times on household management, sometimes investment philosophies, national politics, the economy, and, of course, life in the parish. Monthly attendance has varied from as few as 4 to as many as 11.

We usually gather in the bar at the Irish Inn at Glen Echo at 11:30. But we have ventured to other locations, including the home of Ben Ivins. A reminder email with the location and time is sent to all interested persons early in the week we are meeting.

If you would like to know more about the group, or be put on the email list, contact or Bob Dresser (Robert.dresser@gmail.com).

Denny Shaw (shawdf22@gmail.com)

Welcome

Welcome to The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer in Bethesda, Maryland, a vibrant, growing parish community of “inquiring and discerning hearts”, where all – the doubter, the seeker, and the believer – are welcome to join us in living and wrestling with the often difficult questions of faith. Here we value an Anglican spirituality – one that is open to the mystery of the Holy and which celebrates the dignity of human nature and the beauty of all creation.
